DELPHOS AND GOMER

Were the Leading Prize Winners in Yesterday's Eisteddfod.

The Delphos Society Captured the Big Prizes, and Its Solists Did Handsomely—Lima Made a Poor Showing—Was a Great Day For Gomer.

The Second Eisteddfod of Gomer, held in that beautiful little hamlet yesterday, was a most pronounced success from beginning to end. President of the day, Dr. R. E. Jones, introduced Mr. Wm. E. Powell, of Milwaukee, Wis., as conductor of the morning session. It is estimated that 1000 people were under the huge canvass when the Eisteddfod opened.

MORNING SESSION.

Following was the result of the first session: Essay, "David and Goliath," prize awarded to Miss Ruth Stevens, of Columbus, Iowa. Adjudication by Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, of Chicago.

Recitation, "Yn Yr Ystorn," prize divided between Misses Mary Williams and Mary Breese, of Venedocia. Adjudication by Rev. J. H. Thomas, of Lima.

Baritone solo, "The Accents of Liberty." The prize went to R. E. Wait, of Chicago.

Glee, "Christian Soldiers," was competed for by the Cambrian, of Venedocia, the Gomer Glee and the Delphos Club. The Cambrians, of Venedocia, were the successful ones. Delphos did well in this, but was a little weak.

Sixteen voice competition, "Sleep My Darling," was competed for by voices from Lima, Delphos, Venedocia and the Radiance and Gypsies, of Gomer. The Radiance, of Gomer, excelled, and carried off the prize of $10.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Again the pavilion was crowded almost to overflowing. Prof. Apmadoc, of Chicago, conductor of the session, introduced Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, who delivered the opening address in a stirring manner.

The following competitions were held: Duet for soprano and alto, "O Lord, We Adore Thee," was won by Misses Anna Bussert and Lillie Arthur, of Delphos.

Recitation, "The Life For Which I Long," had one contestant, a seven-year-old child, Lottie Jones.

Soprano solo, "Only a Rose," Miss Anna Bussert, of Delphos, capturing first prize, and Miss Anna Klages, of Delphos, taking second prize.

The competition on drawing was won by Miss Katherine Lehman, of the Lima college.

Translation from Welsh to English, "Society Without Morality." Twenty contestants worked for the prize, which was divided between J. A. Williams, of Milwaukee, Wis., and Dr. E. J. Jones, of Oak Hill, O. Adjudication by Rev. Davies, of Gomer.

Recitation, "The Murderer," won by Mr. J. S. Richards, of Delaware, O. Competition on Ladies' Fancy Work was won by Amelia A. Hahn, of Cincinnati.

Male chorus, "Clychau Aberdŷ," by Apmadoc, was contested for by the Venedocia Glee club and the "Twelve Welshmen" club from Gomer. The Venedocia club with forty voices, which occurred through an error in the program, won the prize. It was intended that there should be only twelve voices.

Essay on "Essentials of Domestic Happiness," limited to women contestants. Jane Davies, of Edwardsville, O., was the winner.

Choral Anthem, "I will Extol Thee" by Galedffrd, was one of the foremost competitions of the day, the prize being $50. The Lima, Gomer and Delphos societies participated. In this competition the Delphos Choral, under the direction of Prof. H. W. Owens displayed careful training and preparation, which won for them first prize at Columbus Eisteddfod last New Year's. Their attacks, phrasing, intonations and tempos were excellent and captured for them the first prize. Prof. H. W. Owens and each member of the Society is deserving of great praise for the very fine manner in which they rendered the anthem. The Delphos Choral has made a record which they will undoubtedly maintain, and it is no surprise that they carried off the major portion of yesterday's prizes.

EVENING SESSION.

The evening session was commenced at 8 o'clock, and every chair was occupied, many being compelled to stand. Following were the competitions; Tenor solo, prize awarded to G. H. Griffiths, of Vaucliffville.

Oration, "Woman in Politics," had four competitors, and the prize was divided between Rev. E. T. Phillips, of Chicago, and Mr. Reeder of Middlepoint, Ohio.

The soprano solo prize for "Like as a Father," was won by Miss Anna Bussert, of Delphos.

Recitation, prize divided between Elias Humphrey, of Venedocia, and Louis Morris, of Lima.

Tenor solo, "My Blodwen, My True Love," was by Mr. Richards, of Delaware, Ohio.

Male chorus, "The Cambrian Song of Freedom," contested for by Venedocia, Delphos and Gomer, was won by Venedocia.

Mixed quartette, "True Love Lives on Forever," - Lima was the only competitor and consequently took the prize.

Ladies' chorus, "Down in the Dewy Dell," contested for by Delphos, Gomer and Lima chorus and the prize was taken by Gomer.

The grand choruses, (a) "O, Great is the Depth," (b) "O, Come Let Us Sing," were the pieces most hotly contested for, the Delphos, Lima and Gomer societies were in the race, and by superior work, Delphos won the prize in an easy manner. Their singing was grand, Prof. Owens' baton ruled the voices of the singers perfectly and their every note was plain and distinct, the time perfect and the rendition superb.

The evening session lasted until after 12 o'clock, but the music remained until it was all over, so great was the interest. The atmosphere was very cold, but they were there to hear fine singing and were not disappointed. The Second Eisteddfod of Gomer will go down into local history as one of the most elaborate affairs ever held in this part of the State, the smaller as well as the larger details being carefully attended to.

THEY GAMBLED.

Dice Players Commence For Cigars and Wind up Before the Mayor.

Will Kemp, a young fellow from Lima, entered a Main street saloon last night and "shook" the dice with the bar tender for the cigars. They soon commenced betting, Kemp putting up a dollar each "whirl." It seems that the bar tender, did not put up his stake money and a young crippled fellow who was in the saloon held Kemp's money. The affair ended in a row, and the bar tender and Kemp were both fined $18.50 before the Mayor this morning for gambling. Kemp is still a lodger at the police station, being without funds.

Plans of the Pennsylvania.

President George E. Roberts and the directors of the Pennsylvania road have returned from their annual inspection tour over the entire system of the road. Speaking of the changes to be made in the operation of that road, he said: In the west we will lengthen our double track and add to the equipment in various ways. We have ordered 6,000 freight cars, which will be built and delivered during the coming year.

Terrors to Wrong Doers.

The projectors of the Eisteddfod held at Gomer yesterday, anticipated a gang of pickpockets and thugs to be there to get in their work on the crowd. To spoil their opportunities in a measure two Deputy U. S. Marshals from the Toledo district, and seven detectives in citizen's clothes mingled with the crowd and kept the suspicious characters under strict surveillance. Sheriff Fisher was also on hand.

Several old narrow gauge engines, almost dismantled, which have been standing in the Northern Ohio shop yards here for years, are being torn up today and the parts shipped away to be melted and used over again.

Powell's new illusion "New Rapid Transit" is one of the most extraordinary experiments ever witnessed in this country, so astounding in fact, as to almost make one doubt the evidence of one's own senses.

The officers of Van Wert and Paulding counties are hot after the organized gangs of thieves in that section, and during the past week have unearthed wagon loads of plunder.

Since the Paper Mill is not running it affords a good place for the boys to go and amuse themselves by destroying property. Frank Welch is employed to watch the idle plant.

Hallowe'en is here The chickens will have a feast to-morrow morning, and the unlucky individual who does not securely fasten his gate will no doubt find it gone in the morning.

The huge tent in which the Eisteddfod was conducted yesterday presented a very pretty appearance with its decorations. The atmosphere was a trifle chilly, but the immense crowd did not complain.

Frank Wahmhoff has been having a serious time the past few days. A big carbuncle kept company with his right foot, and a felon on the first finger of his right hand allowed him no sleep until he had the finger lanced.

Merritt Cochran, a school teacher living three miles east of town, sprained a knee joint while going to his home last evening. He could not walk this morning, and Dr. Marsh examined the knee and found the sprain to be a severe one.

MEANS BUSINESS.

Geo. W. Beers, of Ft. Wayne, is Here Looking Up the Telephone Prospects.

Geo. W. Beers and Mr. Louis Ohnhaus superintendent of the Ft. Wayne telephone exchange, are in the city again looking over the field in regard to telephone matters. Mr. Beers is anxious to put in an up to date exchange if no one else intends doing so. The gentlemen are looking over the ground in all good faith, and should they decide to put in the exchange Mr. Ohnhaus will be directly interested.

A good argument in favor of these gentlemen putting in the exchange is the fact that on Tuesday in Ft. Wayne a new telegraph and telephone company was formed, the capital stock of which is held by Ohio and Indiana capitalists. G. W. Beers is the president of the company, and has organized telephone exchanges at Defiance, Lima, Van Wert, Wapakoneta, St. Marys and toll stations in many other towns. The above named towns are all connected by toll lines, and Delphos would be treated the same if he carries out his hopes in regard to an exchange.

The telephone question is seemingly a frayed out one in Delphos, but just be patient for a time longer, and the wishes of our people in general will no doubt be gratified. To-day Delphos is the largest city in the State of Ohio which is without a telephone exchange. It is time we were catching up with the procession in this respect.

Buying Votes Don't Go.

The political factions of Van Wert have formed a Citizens' Committee for the purpose of preventing candidates from buying votes. County Treasurer Carlo, who is on the Republican ticket for re-election, was arrested on the charge of attempting to buy the vote of Alex. Kiggins, of Ridge township. The arrest was made on the affidavit of A. A. Griffin, of the Citizen's Committee. We understand that Carlo was discharged.

FITZSIMMONS' ARREST

It Was Made by Governor Clarke's Officers.

THE FIGHT IS THUS PREVENTED.

All the Parties Connected With the Proposed Fight Will Be Put Under a Heavy Peace Bond—The President of the Hot Springs Athletic Club Says the Fight Will Not Take Place.

TEXARKANA, Tex., Oct. 31.—Sheriff Dillard and deputies of Miller county, who left Texarkana on the Iron Mountain cannon ball at 8:30 o'clock, succeeded in bagging the pugilistic game they were after. Fitzsimmons and his trainer were arrested by them and taken off their train at Fulton. A special train was telegraphed for to bring the officers and pugilists back to this city, and at 5 o'clock a train left here for that purpose. They arrived here about 7:15 o'clock, and the sheriff with his deputies, with Fitzsimmons and Julian, under arrest, left Texarkana at 7:35 p. m. last night via the Cotton Belt railway for Little Rock. They took this route to avoid any trouble that might arise at Malvern, if the Iron Mountain route was used.

The Associated Press correspondent interrogated Fitzsimmons and Julian while they were here. Both said they were ready for the fight, but could not say when or where it would take place, as they were under arrest. Both denounced Corbett and the Florida Athletic club for doing everything in their power to prevent and stave off the fight to a later day. They declared Corbett was not in condition now, and hence tried to put it off. Fitzsimmons said he was in fine trim, and felt confident of easily knocking Corbett out.

Proceedings at Little Rock.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 31.—When Sheriff Dillard and Fitzsimmons arrives here the fighter and Julian will be taken before Chancellor Martin to answer the warrants and will probably be put under peace bonds. Corbett and Brady are expected from Hot Springs this afternoon on an similar errand. Information came to the governor last night that the reason Corbett is hiding at Hot Springs is that he wishes to be there so that Fitzsimmons can't say he was not on hand on the appointed day. He will come out and be brought here this afternoon.

At Hot Springs.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Oct. 31.—Mrs. Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Julian, Frank White, Ernest Roebber and Fitzsimmons' lion came through unmolested, arriving here at 8:35 p. m., and registered at the Arlington. A party of citizens from Hot Springs will be on hand when Fitzsimmons and Sheriff Hoop and Deputy Cooper arrive at Little Rock, who will go on the bonds of the prisoner. President Babcock of the Hot Springs Athletic club said: "The fight will occur sometime between Nov. 1 and Nov. 7 at Hot Springs."

Lew. Westcott, formerly foreman in the Delphos Paper Mill, is in Detroit Mich., occupying the same relative position in the mill of the St. Clair Paper Company. His family is also there, and will move their household goods from their residence on North Main street, this city, to Detroit.

There will no doubt be many Hallowe'en gatherings to-night, and as we cannot make a trip over town and ferret them all out to-night, those having them in hand would confer a favor by reporting the pleasant affairs to us, with a list of the names of those attending.

There was a lively competition among the young men at Gomer yesterday for patrons to the feed barns they represented, and we are sorry to say that in several instances they became insolent when the prospective patron failed to patronize a certain place.

The water works test well was completed last mid-night at 150 feet, with an abundance of water. The well will be tested this afternoon with Fisher's fan pump. The drilling outfit was removed to Ricker's mill this morning, where a well will be put down.

Every rose is said to be possessed of a thorn. Just so. We now have plenty of water in the canal for fire purposes for the present, but none can be spared to sprinkle on the streets to prevent the wind from whisking the dust in all directions.

The heavens made a feeble attempt to weep this morning and succeeded to the extent of only a few drops of rain. The temperature is much warmer though, and every one hopes it will bring aqua pura in abundance.

Will Louth has resigned his position in the HERALD composing room to accept a similar one on the Kleeblatt. Miss Minnie Galloway now holds cases in this office, and Bert Heaton will do likewise beginning next Monday.

HEART DISEASE,

like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Drexville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows: "I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones, of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 19 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I have not lost a day since. I am 55 years old, 4 ft. 4 1/2 inches and weigh 250 lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at 25c, 6 bottles for $1.50 or it will be sent prepaid on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
