

Borgman-Baskett Vows Spoken in Grace Church

Grace Episcopal church was the scene of the wedding Monday night of Miss Louise Stuart Baskett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles H. Baskett and Lewis Alan Borgman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Borgman.

The Rev. William C. Wauer performed the ceremony before the altar which was decorated with bouquets of flowers and altar candles. The immediate families and close friends were present. Both the bride and groom were christened and confirmed in Grace church.

Mrs. Leonard Kuite, church organist, played the traditional wedding marches and appropriate music before and after the ceremony.

Miss Sarah Hotiman of Allegan was maid of honor and Miss Ruth McEnonga was bridesmaid. Bob Borgman was his brother's best man. Ushers were Paul Courtney and Joseph Borgman Jr.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the social hall. Friends of the bride who served were the Misses Lucille Schutmaat, Mary and Molly Buttlers, Ista Tebank, Mary Van Raalte, Doris Haring, and Gwen Koolker. Miss Donna Klompans was in charge of the girls.

Picturesque Barn Is Setting for Castle Dance

Ebenezer barn, built from timbers of the old barn torn down some years ago at Ebenezer church southeast of Holland, forms an interesting background for dancing under the stars on a dune overlooking Lake Michigan at Castle park. The roof is made of old hand-made shingles of oak brought from the Carolina mountains, similar to that used on pioneer homes.

Ebenezer barn is used as a guest house. The Barn Swallow, a smaller building of similar design built opposite Ebenezer barn on the dune, is used as a canteen. There is a band shell nearby.

Perfect Sailing Weather Prevails for Resorters

Continued fresh winds last week provided excellent sailing for adult guests at The Mooring. The "Sea Hag," larger of the two Mooring sailboats, has been making two trips a day on Lake Michigan. Several vacationists of the surrounding area have been receiving sailing instruction at The Mooring.

Last Saturday night, children at The Mooring enjoyed a country dance in the resort lounge. Accordian music was provided by a guest, Mrs. Muehlig, wife of Dr. George F. Muehlig of Ann Arbor.

Guests have been taking advantage of opportunities to explore the woods and pick fruit on the Galt farm a 28-acre tract recently added to The Mooring property. The farm is located between Pine Lodge resort and the P. T. Chell home.

Castle Kids Hike

The Castle overnight hike for play class girls was a success in spite of early rising and sandy beds. The girls spent Wednesday night at Green Mountain, breakfasted at Gillingham's lake and returned to the Castle before adult waking hours.

Big week-end event was the Castle Park Junior Horse show for riders under 18. The show was at Henry Boerman's Maple Brook farm Lucille Van Domeien was chairman.

Arrivals at the Castle during the week-end include Mr. and Mrs. Charles Culp of Indianapolis, Mrs. C. Lindop of Wilmette, Ill., the families of Howard Dickey and George Cooke of Detroit, Robert China, J. P. Castleberry, Dan Morrison and I. M. Pease of Cincinnati, Oliver G. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gruppen (the Vries photo) are living on route J Zeeland, following their marriage July 19 in Borculo Christian Reformed church. The bride is the former Gertrude Boetsma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Boetsma and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Gruppen, all of Borculo.

The Rev. C. Vanden Heuvel read the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with palms, ferns, candelabra and bouquets of white gladioli. Roses and lighted candles tied with white satin bows, decorated the pews.

Mrs. Tony Luitsema, organist, played the bridal marches and accompanied Miss Elaine Steingenga who sang "Because," "Through the Years" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride wore a white marquisette gown over satin, fashioned with an imported applique lace yoke, long sleeves and a full hoop skirt, edged with lace and shirred in front to reveal lace ruffles, extending into a train. Her fingertip veil of Swiss applique illusion was edged with Chantilly lace and held in place was a braided band entwined with pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with gardenias. A single strand of pearls completed her ensemble.

The attendants were Miss Herman E. Gruppen, sister of the bride, matron of honor, and Mrs. Peter Boetsma, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Marilyn Gruppen, the groom's sister, bridesmaid.
