A NATION OF CRIPPLES
RHEUMATISM BEYOND CONTROL

The Only Hope for Rheumatic Sufferers is Uric-O Treatment.

If rheumatism continues to spread as it has in the past few years, it would seem as though we would before long become a nation of cripples. The terrible destructiveness of this disease is apparent on every side of us. Almost nine out of ten of the cripples one meets had their affliction brought on by Rheumatism. How many thousands more there are that are hopelessly bed-ridden and whom we never see. Rheumatism from the very nature of the disease, can never cure itself, and if neglected is bound to grow worse rather than better. If you ever have any twinges of Rheumatism go to H. D. Dwight & Co.'s drug store right here in Syracuse and get a bottle of Uric-O, the wonderful new Rheumatic specific. It will cure you, and it is the only treatment in the world that will cure you permanently and thoroughly.

MARRIED BENEATH FOLIAGE ARCH

MR. AND MRS. VAN BROCKLIN

A pretty home wedding was celebrated on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dunn of Pompey. The participants were Miss Mabel Leora Dunn, the daughter, and Bert W. Van Brocklin of Manlius.

The house was handsomely decorated with cut flowers and autumn foliage. The ceremony, performed by Rev. Mr. Burton of the Manlius Baptist Church, took place beneath an arch from which was suspended a wedding bell. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Frank Van Buskirk of Pompey.

The bride wore white net over white silk.

An elaborate supper was served to eighty guests, after which Mr. and Mrs. Van Buskirk left for a Western New York trip. They will live in Franklin street, Manlius, where the groom is connected with S. Cheney & Son. Mr. Van Brocklin is a nephew of Judge Van Brocklin of Pompey and the bride is a popular young woman of that village.

LITTLE PATIENTS IN NEW PAVILION

Children Moved from Hospital of Good Shepherd Yesterday.

Ten little patients from the Hospital of the Good Shepherd were moved yesterday to the new pavilion in University avenue adjoining the hospital. The move was made necessary by the many patients in the hospital and the need of more room.

The cottage has been made most attractive in every way and is fitted up with everything known to modern science in the medical and surgical line. There is an operating room for the children in the building, and within a few days it is expected to have all the instruments to complete its outfit.

The formal opening of the ward will take place next Saturday.

Mrs. Clarence E. Bull and Mrs. Edward S. Tefft gave a delightful afternoon tea on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Bull in Walnut avenue. The rooms were beautifully flower trimmed for the occasion. In the large living room where the hostesses received their guests the fireplace was banked with bright red salvia and its green foliage. Graceful ferns filled the mantel and American Beauty roses and Daybreak carnations in large clusters were used. The large round table in the dining room had, as a centerpiece, a large basket of white roses and maiden hair ferns. It was lighted by the yellow-shaded light above it and numerous white-shaded candles in cut glass and in rose-shaped candlesticks. A large cluster of pink roses ornamented the china cabinet and pink flowers were also used on the sideboard. The den was decorated in red and quantities of feathery asparagus ferns wreathed the chandeliers and door casings.

Presiding at the table at the two different hours were Mrs. George W. Garrett, Mrs. Thomas A. Fenton, Mrs. James P. Rule and Mrs. Clarence G. Brown.

Mrs. Bull and Mrs. Tefft were also assisted in the entertainment of their guests by Mrs. J. Eugene Girvin, Mrs. Edward J. Wynkoop, Mrs. Seth D. Baker, Mrs. George H. Clark, Mrs. Clarence E. FOOD AGAIN

A Mighty Important Subject to Everyone

A Boston lady talks entertainingly of food and the changes that can be made in health by some knowledge on that line. She says:

"An injury to my spine in early womanhood left me subject to severe sick headaches which would last three or four days at a time, and a violent course of drugging at the hands of old-fashioned physicians brought on constipation, with all ills that follow.

"My appetite was always light and uncertain and many kinds of food distressed me.

"I began to eat Grape-Nuts food two or three years ago, because I liked the taste of it, and I kept on because I soon found it was doing me good.

"I eat it always at breakfast, frequently at luncheon, and again before going to bed—and have no trouble in 'sleeping on it.' It has cured my constipation, my headaches have practically ceased, and I am in better physical condition at the age of 63 than I was at 40.

"I give Grape-Nuts credit for restoring my health, if not saving my life, and you can make no claim for it too strong for me to endorse." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason.

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in each pkg.
