Thieves are plying their nefarious business in a bold and unheard of manner, in and around Hanover, this county. Scarcely a night passes but what some article of value is missed the next morning. On last Saturday night the barns of Squire Wm. Barrick and numerous other residents of that village were entered and a quantity of harness and other property carried off. There is no clue as yet to the thieves, but it is thought that an organized gang is working that part of the county.

Birthday Surprises.

One of the most enjoyable occasions that has taken place in Newark for some time, was had at the residence of Mr. J. F. Bane, Esq., on Elm street last night, it being the anniversary of the birth of Mrs. A. E. Bane, the estimable wife of Mr. J. F. Bane. During the early part of the evening, a number of her friends gathered in, completely surprising her. After some time spent in a social way, the younger persons slipped out of the room, but soon returned, laden with an ample supply of delicious edibles that the guests had brought with them. A most enjoyable time was had while partaking of the feast, which was greatly heightened by the presentation to Mrs. Bane of numerous handsome testimonials of their friendship and love. Among those who were present were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bane, Dr. J. Brooke and family, F. Williams and family, Rev. Mr. Powell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Frank and Laura Bane.

After an evening brimful of pleasure, the guests after expressing their good wishes, took their leave.

NEWARK'S NEEDY ONES.

A Meeting to be Held To-morrow Night.

At Which Steps Will be Taken Toward Relieving the Distressed of Our City.

It may not be generally known, but nevertheless great destitution is prevailing at the present moment in different portions of our beautiful city of Newark. In many cases, we are informed, whole families are without a morsel of food, and with barely sufficient clothing to hide their nakedness. Often where such cases exist, the suffering ones are too proud to beg, and their condition remains unknown. In view of this alarming state of affairs, it has been deemed advisable to call a meeting of the citizens of Newark to take steps toward relieving the wants of all worthy citizens, who may be in need of the same. This meeting will be held in the basement of the Court House to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock. It is a good thing to provide for those in heathen lands, but it would be a much better thing to provide for some of the little bare-footed boys and girls of our own city. Our people responded nobly to the call for aid that came up from the flooded districts of the Ohio valley last spring. Let them now respond in a like manner to the appeal of those in our own city who are dependant upon your charity for sustenance.

In this connection, we would also direct the attention of the readers of the ADVOCATE to the communication of Dr. R. C. Sutherland in another column of this paper.

A full stock of everything in our line at "Hard Pan" prices. We ask you to compare our goods and prices before purchasing. 6dfr SPRAGUE'S the Jeweler.

Amusements—Charity.

Ed. Advocate.—An able essay on "Christianity and Popular Amusements" from the pen of Rev. Washington Gladden, of Columbus, appears in the January Century. I hope the essay will be read by Christians and all others, as illustrating what may be done in the way of purifying our amusements, and giving them an educational character. Dr. Gladden gives an account of the "Cleveland Educational Bureau," an organization providing a series of popular entertainments for the people of that city. I will not take up your space by reproducing that description. What I write to suggest is that our citizens organize immediately for the purpose of giving somewhat similar entertainments, the proceeds to be devoted this winter to the relief of our suffering poor. At ten cents admission and by proper management, a fund of between forty and fifty dollars each week could be secured from this effort. I am sure the members of the various churches who have experience in this direction, would be willing to give their time and energies to this movement. At least this winter. When charity ceased to be necessary, then the organization could work in the same line as the Cleveland Bureau. It there seems to be a necessity for the movement, I suggest I shall be glad to do all I can to make it a success. R. R. SUTHERLAND.

Span of Mules For Sale.

I will sell at private sale, a span of mules, sixteen hands high, a jack and jenny, seven years old. These are the best team of mules in the county. Inquire of the undersigned at the residence of Gen. Woods, on Granville street, this city, or at the office of Jones & Phillips. 6t JOHN THOMAS.

Low Rate Excursion to Columbus via the B. & O.

For those desiring to attend the grand Elsteddoff to be held in Columbus on New Year's day and night, by the Welsh citizens of Central Ohio the B. & O. will sell excursion tickets good going on all regular trains January 1 and returning January 2, 1885, at the low rate of sixty-five cents. This will, it is believed, be the finest male chorus contest ever held the State, and on account of the number of competitors and the long programme the committee have decided to commence the morning session promptly at 9 o'clock, the afternoon session at 2 o'clock, and the grand concert in the evening at 8 o'clock, which will in all probability last until midnight. B. & O. trains leave Newark at 4 a. m., 7:20 a. m. (7:45 city time) and 1:40 p. m. Returning, leave Columbus at 5 p. m. and 2:50 a. m., central time.

Coming Amusements.

The following attractions will appear at Music Hall during the month of January: Redmond & Barry's romantic dramatic company will appear here on January 8th, in their new and original romantic drama, "A Midnight Marriage."

"The World," the greatest spectacular drama on the stage, January 9 and 10th. This is a very large company and carries a car load of scenery.

"Power of Money" combination, January 21st.

Dominick Murray's combination in "Escaped from Sing-Sing."

The last named won the prize at Cleveland last Thursday. The competing choirs are the Welsh Choral Society and the Ambrose Choral Society, of Cincinnati; the Lima Choral, of Lima, and the Cambr-Ambr-Choral Society of that city. The violinist will be Miss Emma J. Lathrop, Columbus; Prof. William Spindler, Utica, N. Y.; H. A. Moore, Columbus, and M. J. Edwards, Cincinnati.

For this occasion cheap excursion tickets will be sold, under the auspices of the Welsh Singing Society of Newark. Tickets good going January 1st, and returning 2nd, inclusive, at low rates. Everybody should go.
