THE COURTS.

COUNTY COURT.
The county courts of Benton county are held the first Mondays in January, April, July and October of each year.

PROBATE COURT.
Probate courts are held the third Mondays in Jan'y, April, July and October of each year.

CIRCUIT COURT.
Benton circuit court convenes in Bentonville the third Mondays in March and September of each year.

Words are things; and a small drop of ink, falling like dew upon a thought, produces that which makes thousands, perhaps millions think.

I'M SORRY.

There is much that makes me sorry as I journey down earth's way,
And I seem to see more paths to your human lives each day.
I'm sorry for the strong, brave men who shield the weak from harm,
But who in their own troubled hour find no protecting arm.

I'm sorry for the victors who have enthroned success;
As targets for the arrows shot by envious fallow's hand.

And I'm sorry for the generous hearts who freely shared their wine;
But drink alone the gall of tears in fortune's dreary decline.

I'm sorry for the souls who build their own man's funeral pyre,
Derided by the scoundrel throng, like idle, deriding fire.

And I'm sorry for the conquering ones who know not sin's defeat,
But daily tread down those desire "neath scorched and bleeding feet."

I'm sorry for the anguished hearts that break with passion's stain,
But I'm sorer for the poor, starved souls that never know love's pain.

Who hunger on through barren years, not tasting joys they crave;
For sadder far is such a lot than weeping o'er a grave.

I'm sorry for the soul that comes, unwelcomed into birth;
I'm sorry for the unloved old who cumber to the earth.

I'm sorry for the suffering poor in life's great mad-strum hurly-burly,
In truth I'm sorry for them all who make this tottering world.

But underneath what seems sad and is not understood,
I know there lies hid from our sight a mighty word of good.

And this belief stands close by me, my sermon, motto, text—
The sorriest things in this life will seem grandest in the next.

—ELIA WHEELER WILSON.

The Enterprise Herald, of Southwest City, Mo., made a big "boo" over the report that Heck Bruner, the noted United States Marshal of the Indian Territory, had met his death.

We hope he has been rightly informed by this time.

Prof. J. H. Shinn, manager of the Chautauque, to be held in Springdale from June 14 to 24, received the following telegram from W. J. Bryan:

"Professor J. H. Shinn, Springdale, Ark.—Can't speak on the 22nd, but rather than disappoint you will speak on the 24th."

Mr. Bryan will speak twice on the 24th, one in the morning and once in the evening. Hon. Champ Clark will speak three days. Among the other noted speakers who are billed to be present at the Chautauque are: Hous. Ham, Bain, Bob Taylor, Powell, Leland, Appadoc, Cook and Dunn.

SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS.

Kansas City, Mo., June 26.—A special cablegram to the Star from Manila, via Hong-Kong, June 25, says:

Captain Clark, Captain Watson, Lieutenant Bull and 200 sick or wounded from the Twentieth Kansas Regiment, have been sent home.

Only 450 men are still doing duty. These are on the firing line. The other members of the regiment are relieved from duty on account of sickness.

The Kansas regiment's normal strength is about 1,200 men. With 200 sick on the way home and 450 on the firing line, 550 are left among those "unfit for duty."

HECK BRUNER.

Heck Bruner is dead, and at his death there died no braver man. Who can doubt his bravery that ever roared how he fastened poles on the hind axle of a wagon and succeeded in capturing Ned Christy, the most notorious outlaw that ever roamed the wilds of the Cherokee Nation? The time is coming when his name will head the long list of brave and daring men.

Though he was not killed by a whiskey peddler, we are glad to say, but sorry to say he is dead and met his death by sinking beneath the surging waves of Grand River while attempting to swim from bank to bank. His body was found the following evening two miles below where he sank. He was buried near Pryor Creek with Masonic honors.

HECK BRUNER.

The newspapers generally in this section of the country are trying their dad-gummed to kill United States Marshal Heck Bruner, and have all contained reports of his death at the hands of a whiskey peddler over at Browling's ferry on Grand river. The facts in the case are that Heck Bruner has not turned his toes up to the duibies, but is still above the soil, and the supposition is that he will remain so until he does shuffle off this mortal coil. It is true that Heck Bruner was widely and favorably known; that he has been a brave and efficient deputy marshal; that his career has been fraught with much danger, and some very narrow escapes; that he, with others, constructed a fortification of rails fastened to the hind axle of a wagon and succeeded in capturing the most notorious outlaw, Ned Christy, in the Cherokee nation; that he has been a terror to evil-doers and that his name will be recorded in the annals of history as a brave and daring officer, but the report that he has passed to the great beyond is an injustice to him and it will probably be some time before he recovers from the humiliating fact that he is dead.

—Southwest City Enterprise Herald.

Bro. Bruner come over on the railroad where you can get access to daily mail and telegraph wires, and where you can get news before it is too old to print. We are sorry the Bro. made such a blunder as the above, but we hope what he said about Mr. Bruner's death could have been true.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Johnston's Sarsaparilla' and to my great surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts., guaranteed, at N. H. Mitchell's Drug Store.
