ENTIRE LACK OF HARMONY

Too Frequent Changes of Institution for Feeble-Minded Has Reduced Its Efficiency—Nebraska News.

BEATRICE, Neb., Aug. 12.—(Special.)—Jim Millikin, steward at the state institution, defends Dr. Lang's management of the place and says the stories which have appeared in the Journal are exaggerations. He says: "There are men I admire more than Dr. Lang and men of greater ability."

I feel called upon to deny these stories. The man I admire most is the boy who made and made so much over them that they became spoiled and rendered it next to impossible to enforce any discipline. Then there was continually criticizing the actions of Dr. Lang and his superiors and others and appeared dissatisfied when matters were not run to suit his capricious ideas. There was no pitched battle Sunday morning anything approaching it. There was no anything approaching it. There was no anything approaching it.

The work of the different committees for the street fair and carnival is moving along smoothly. The ladies who have charge of the floral parade are working hard to make this one of the most successful features of the fair. The program committee have fixed Monday afternoon for the floral parade to be followed in the evening by a grand fireworks display.

The Journal correspondent related a statement made by Calland wherein he charged that Millikin kicked one of the boys who would not leave the building and go to the cottage and when told to leave so again he kicked him. This statement was made by Calland after reaching the door gave him a kick. To this Millikin said he presumed he knew of the occurrence and referred to it as a "kiss" and "a push." "It is necessary at times to be a push," said Millikin, "or they would run the institution."

A prominent business man of Beatrice who has done business with the state, but who did not want to get mixed up in the present controversy, said to the writer today: "My business has called me out there frequently and I have witnessed many abuses of the children and I could relate them if I were not that I did not want to do so."

One great cause of the constant trouble which has occurred there since the fusionists have been in control has been the desire of the popularists for positions in the state government. The employees who were successful. The employees will stand around in groups of varying numbers today to criticize the superintendent and other employees. The employees of the boys made no difference with their talk. The result has been that the boys have been made discontented and has no doubt at times been the cause of insubordination among them. This bickering among the employees has been going on constantly and any one could foresee the result. A mistake is made in anyone thinking those boys can be managed by force, but they can be gotten to do anything by coaxing and kindness."

Talking on these lines another gentleman said: "The superintendent is the best person there has authority to punish an inmate. Let us know that when Dr. Fall was there one of the best attendants in the institution was a young man named Glenwood. The attendant had come from the Glenwood. The attendant had come from the Glenwood. The attendant had come from the Glenwood."

HASTINGS PARAPHRASE MOURN THE DEATH OF A DAUGHTER.

HASTINGS, Neb., Aug. 12.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lytle arrived this morning from Boulder, Colo., with the body of their daughter, Grace, who died from consumption occurred at that place Thursday evening. The funeral will take place tomorrow from the family residence, 524 East Second street, and the services will be conducted by Rev. John Power of the Episcopal church. The deceased was only fifteen years of age. She was taken to Colorado two months ago by her mother in the hope that a change of climate would stay the ravages of the dread disease with which she was afflicted.

Queen City Briefs. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Briggs have returned home. Mr. Briggs, who is a traveling man, was brought from a railroad car at Queen City several weeks ago and it was thought for a time his injuries might prove fatal. He is recovering slowly, but it will be some time before he regains his former good health.

The Long Pine Chautauque. LONG PINE, Neb., Aug. 12.—(Special.)—The Long Pine Chautauque opened today with the largest attendance for many years. About fifty tents and cottages are occupied and space for many more has been secured. The management has worked hard for the benefit of this meeting and all indications are that it will be the best ever held. Rev. P. H. Eighmy delivered the opening address, after which the audience was entertained by a musical scope performance. Governor Northcott will probably not be present Wednesday because of the pressure of his official duties, but a number of other prominent Woodmen will be here. A number of the most prominent editors in the state will be present from Norfolk, Chadron and all intermediate points.

The Long Pine Chautauque. LONG PINE, Neb., Aug. 12.—(Special.)—The Long Pine Chautauque opened today with the largest attendance for many years. About fifty tents and cottages are occupied and space for many more has been secured. The management has worked hard for the benefit of this meeting and all indications are that it will be the best ever held. Rev. P. H. Eighmy delivered the opening address, after which the audience was entertained by a musical scope performance.
