

Chew Wetmore's Best

Your Money Back if you don't like Wetmore's Best

The first and only chewing tobacco to be guaranteed.

No Premiums.

If your dealer has not Wetmore's Best, send us 50 cents for a pound plug.

Remember the Umbrella Brand.

M. C. WETMORE TOBACCO CO., St. Louis, Mo.

The largest independent factory in America.

SPECIAL DAYS AT THE PAN-AMERICAN

THE week beginning Sept. 15 will be lumbermen's week at the Pan-American Exposition. Thousands of wholesalers and retail dealers in lumber from all parts of the United States and Canada will be at the great New World's Fair, and they promise to make the week a memorable one.

One of the organizations which will be well represented is the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo, which has a membership of upward of 8,000.

The annual meeting of the Hoo-Hoo will be held at Norfolk, Va., from Sept. 9 to 13, and the delegates will go direct from the Southern city to the Exposition.

The Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo is essentially a lumbermen's order, being composed of lumbermen, timbermen, saw and planing mill machinery manufacturers, newspaper men and railroad men, being those engaged in the lumber trade and those allied industries which are so closely interwoven with the conduct of the lumber business as to make them practically a part thereof.

Mexico Day, Sept. 16.

Exceptional ceremonies are being planned for Mexico day, Monday, Sept. 16, at the Pan-American Exposition. Dr. Aspiroz, the Mexican ambassador to the United States, will be there and will speak. In addition, it is proposed to have a famous and eloquent statesman and orator from Mexico make the address of the day. An effort is being made to secure the attendance of Chief Justice Justo Sierra of the Supreme Court of Mexico. It is proposed to bring the famous Mexican Artillery Band to the Exposition for the day. The Mexican commissioners to the Exposition are deeply interested and will strive earnestly to make their republic's special day a memorable one.

Illinois Day, Sept. 16.

Among other prominent speakers at the Pan-American Exposition on Illinois day, which will be Sept. 16, will be Secretary Lyman J. Gage, Senators Shelby M. Cullom and W. E. Mason, Comptroller of the Currency Charles D. Dawes, in addition to Governor Richard Yates. The First Regiment of Chicago will be in attendance, and the social features of the occasion will not be slighted, an informal hop at one of the large hotels in Buffalo being included in the plans.

Grand Army Veterans' Day, Sept. 17.

G. A. R. day at the Pan-American Exposition, Tuesday, Sept. 17, will be one of the truly great days of the season. It follows closely the national anniversary, which is to be held at Cleveland, and many thousands of veterans and their families will embrace the opportunity of viewing the wonderful sights at the great New World's Fair. An elaborate programme appropriate to the occasion will be carried out. Numerous special features will be provided in honor of the visit of the veterans. Among the bands which will be at the Exposition on G. A. R. day are the famous Marine Band of Chicago, Nineteenth Regiment Band of St. Catharines, East 107th Military Band of Boston and the John C. Welch Military Band of Cincinnati. Band contests will be given afternoon, afternoon and evening. There will be a free exhibition of the United States flag, and in the afternoon there will be a free exhibition of the United States flag, and in the afternoon there will be a free exhibition of the United States flag.

Pennsylvania Day, Sept. 20.

Pennsylvania is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Pennsylvania has been set aside, Friday, Sept. 20. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

the United States, which has now about 3,000 members, also holds its annual meeting the same days.

The International Council of Nurses, a branch of the International Council of Women, and composed of the leading women of the profession throughout the world, will hold a business session on the 10th. This council has called an International Congress, which will be in session for three days, Sept. 18, 19 and 20. The Order of Spanish-American War Nurses will hold its annual meeting that week, probably on Tuesday. These meetings will all be held in the Women's Union.

On Saturday, the 22d, a mass meeting of all these organizations will be held in the Temple of Music of the Exposition. Many of the old army nurses of the Civil War are expected to be present. The Surgeon General of the United States Army has appointed a delegate to represent the Army Nurse Corps. The Victorian Order of Nurses of Canada will also send representatives and all the nurses' clubs and alumni societies of this country and Europe.

Oregon Day, Sept. 25.

In Oregon everything that happens is on a big scale. Evidence of this is seen in the exhibition buildings of the Pan-American Exposition. The State's exhibit is one of the most complete and interesting at the New World's Fair. All who view it pronounce it highly creditable to the productive and progressive State. The plans for Oregon day at the Exposition are on a scale characteristic of the State. The chief officers of the State, representatives in the National Legislature and other prominent organizations will participate in the exercises. Sept. 25 is the day set aside for Oregon day.

Cleveland Day, Sept. 26.

The enterprising city of Cleveland will have a holiday on Thursday, Sept. 26, which has been designated as Cleveland day, at the Pan-American Exposition. Arrangements will be made for low rate excursions both by rail and water, and many thousands of the Forest City's citizens are expected to make the trip to the Exposition, where a programme of exercises appropriate to the occasion will be carried out. The Mayor and other city officials will deliver addresses. Distinguished Ohio statesmen will be invited to participate in the exercises. The arrangements for the event are in the hands of committees composed of Cleveland's most prominent and influential men, and success is assured.

Nebraska Day, Oct. 3.

Nebraska has a fine exhibit of its products at the Pan-American Exposition, and the State is to further distinguish itself by the observance of a special day at the Exposition. Oct. 3 will be Nebraska day, and a programme in which the most distinguished men and women of the State will take part is being arranged.

WHAT IT COSTS IN MONEY.

Probable Expenses of a Visit to the Pan-American.

Naturally most people who contemplate visiting the Pan-American Exposition desire to know what it will cost. I am going to assume that every one can learn the cost of a round trip ticket to Buffalo good for 15 to 30 days. I would advise every one to prepare for at least a two weeks' trip. Those who come on short limit tickets generally regret that they cannot stay longer to enjoy more fully this rare opportunity for pleasure and study, for I am safe in saying that never before has there been such an opportunity for the pleasure seeker or such a magnificent school of progress for those who wish to study what the world is doing in all lines of effort. No one who can possibly raise the money to visit the Exposition should for a moment think of denying himself this signal advantage.

The people of Buffalo have made ample preparation for the entertainment of all who come to the Exposition. In addition to the large number of hotels, where the rates are moderate, the private houses have been very generally thrown open for the entertainment of guests. Visitors may find comfortable accommodations as low as 50 cents a night for lodging, while better accommodations close to the Exposition can be secured for 75 cents and $1 per night. Breakfasts are served by many of the householders at 25 cents to 50 cents, and there is an abundance of good restaurants where meals can be had at very moderate figures. The cost of living in Buffalo should not exceed $2 or $2.50 per day for those who want the best. The admission to the Exposition is 50 cents. This includes admission to all the exhibit buildings and to all parts of the grounds, including the Stadium, where the athletic games and races are held. The Midway also is free to all, where one chooses to take the pleasure of a stroll through the midway. There are no extra charges, except in price from 19 cents to 50 cents, all of them of excellent merit.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

Nebraska Day, Sept. 21.

Nebraska is represented with a State building and a comprehensive exhibit of the great resources of the State at the Pan-American Exposition, and great numbers of her people have visited the great show. A special day for Nebraska has been set aside, Saturday, Sept. 21. Arrangements are being made for a grand observance of the day. There will be special excursions, starting from all important points in the State, and the indications are that many thousands will patronize them. A programme of exercises, in which the most distinguished statesmen and business men of the commonwealth will participate, is now being planned by the State's representatives to the Exposition.

National Grange Day, Oct. 10.

Excursions from all the important agricultural centers are being arranged for National Grange day at the Pan-American Exposition, Thursday, Oct. 10, and great crowds of visitors are assured for the special day. The different State granges will co-operate with the national body to make the day brilliantly successful. A programme of exercises appropriate to the occasion will be prepared. There is a handsome and commodious Grange building at the Exposition, and it will be used as headquarters and information bureau for the visiting Grangers. The agricultural and dairy exhibits at the Exposition are complete and of surpassing interest to agriculturists and dairymen. The United States Government agricultural exhibit is the most comprehensive ever made.

Atlantic City Day, Oct. 11.

Friday, Oct. 11, has been designated as Atlantic City day at the Pan-American Exposition. Prominent citizens of Atlantic City have interested themselves in the matter, and they propose to make their day one of the most important of the Exposition special days. The Associate Committee of Atlantic City Fraternals is doing excellent work in this direction. Owing to the fact that Atlantic City is a very popular resort, attracting many thousands of visitors daily, the committees having in charge the work of booming Atlantic City day at the Exposition will have an unusually good opportunity to advertise the event.

Bottlers' Day, Oct. 18.

Bottling of popular beverages has come to be an extensive and thriving industry. There are numerous large establishments in this country, giving employment to many thousands of persons. Several important associations have been formed among the employers and employees. It has been decided to have this year a gathering of those connected with the industry. This will be at the Pan-American Exposition on Oct. 18. The great attraction of the New World's Fair will serve to make the gathering a large one.

He Hadn't Lost a Bargain.

"John," she said, suddenly shaking him, "there is a burglar in the house."

"Are you sure?" he asked.

"Positive," she replied. "Don't you hear him?"

He got up and began to dress hastily, but quietly.

"What are you going to do, John?" she inquired.

"I am going to sneak out the back way and get a policeman," he answered.

"But if you go right down stairs now," she said, "you'll find him in the dining room."

"Oh, I'll find him, will I?" he retorted sarcastically. "Well, now you just look me over carefully."

"Yes, John; what of it?"

"Do I look like a man who has lost a burglar anywhere?"

"No; of course not, but—"

"Do I have the reputation of being an impertinent fellow who is always interfering with other people's business? Do I in any way resemble the lost and found department of a daily newspaper?"

"No."

"Then why should I get tangled up with other people's property?"

"You're afraid, John."

"Afraid nothing!" he retorted indignantly. "I am looking at it from an ethical point of view. This burglar undoubtedly has been lost by the police, and if I took charge of him they might think I was trying to steal him and make a lot of trouble for me. Besides, I'm no searching party. You women don't understand the ethics of business at all."—Chicago Post.

Testing the Schoolmaster.

In the town records of the city of Boston there is a curious passage which records how a schoolmaster was examined and what happened. The manner in which the visit of inspection is recorded makes one incline to the view that the unlucky schoolmaster may not have had fair play, although if he was really inefficient he may be said to have been judged by his peers.

In the record for the 22d of May, 1722, it is set forth that:

"Col. Pen Townsend, Jeremiah Allen Esqr., & John Edwards together with the Select men, Visited the Wrighting School at the Southerly End of Boston on Thursday the 24th April 1722, and Examined the Scholars under Mr. Ames Angers tutelage as to their proficiency in Reading writing Sey phing & the masters ability of teaching & instructing youth his rules & methods therefore And are of Opinion That it will be no Service to the Town to continue his services in that Employ."

Whereupon it was voted that the said Mr. Ames Angers should not continue master of the said South School."

It is true that nothing is said of the method of spelling mentioned at the time of the visit, and it is a possible that the schoolmaster might have been a good teacher, but the record is so plain that the schoolmaster was not to be continued in his position.

The Cambridge contract is a pretty good specimen of spelling, and the schoolmaster of that time was a good teacher, but the record is so plain that the schoolmaster was not to be continued in his position.

He Was Cautious.

Wederly—The doctor says I must take more exercise. Do you think I ought to begin with dumbbells?

Mrs. Wederly—Suppose for a starter you come out with me this afternoon and wheel the baby carriage?

Wederly—1—er—really, Mary, I couldn't think of it. I don't want to overdo the thing the first day.—Chicago News

He Was So Horr.

"Well," said the doctor, peeping into the room where Wellington Frash, the great poker expert, was waiting for the returns. "I suppose you will regard this as a mere formality, but I must congratulate you nevertheless on the fact that you have a fine boy across the hall."

"H!" said Mr. Frash. "That's good! Come in and take something."

"Excuse me for a moment," the doctor replied. Presently he returned, but his head into Mr. Frash's den and said: "Let me congratulate you again. You have two fine boys across the hall."

Mr. Frash opened his mouth as if to respond, but before he could do so the doctor was gone again. Presently he was hounded in the new father's presence, saying: "By George, you have three fine boys across the hall!"

It was starting back when Mr. Frash hurried forward, pressed him by the shoulder and in excited tones cried:

"Say, doc, hold on. Three of a kind are good enough for me. I stand pat."—Chicago Herald.

The Earthquake.

To the average resident of the temperate zones an earthquake is a rare and terrible event, creating more consternation than any other visitation of nature. In the tropics, however, particularly in Central America, it is wonderful how easily the residents become accustomed to these shocks, which do not come, however, wholly without warning.

You are sitting on a piazza on a hot afternoon chatting with your friends when suddenly the sky seems to grow hazy and the crows stop cawing. There is a general rush, and though you may not know what is the matter, you can not help feeling uneasy.

The old natives say, "We're going to have a little shake," and then the house begins to rock, the tumbler fall off the table, you feel deathly sick at the stomach, and the thing is all over. The sky clears, the crows begin their noisy screams, and things are soon put right again.

corp mumen who does not believe that the beautifully garlanded bottle of wine broken against the stem of a ship is anything but the choicest brand of champagne drawn from the admirals' cellar. Whenever a ship is launched in a dockyard the admiralty generously allow £10 as the cost of the jubilation and included in this sum of £10 is the item of 3 shillings for wine. Hence it follows that not only is the wine not drawn from the admirals' cellar, but it certainly is not champagne of foreign vintage. English Navy and Military Record

Understood at Last.

"Hello, Central! Give me one trip-nought South!"

"What?"

"Don't you catch it? One zero, zero, zero South."

"What?"

"South one double nought, nought."

"Can't you speak plainer?"

"One thousand South—ten hundred South. Get it now?"

"Oh, you mean South one nought, double nought. All right."—Chicago Tribune

He Was Cautious.

Wederly—The doctor says I must take more exercise. Do you think I ought to begin with dumbbells?

Mrs. Wederly—Suppose for a starter you come out with me this afternoon and wheel the baby carriage?

Wederly—1—er—really, Mary, I couldn't think of it. I don't want to overdo the thing the first day.—Chicago News

He Was So Horr.

"Well," said the doctor, peeping into the room where Wellington Frash, the great poker expert, was waiting for the returns. "I suppose you will regard this as a mere formality, but I must congratulate you nevertheless on the fact that you have a fine boy across the hall."

"H!" said Mr. Frash. "That's good! Come in and take something."

"Excuse me for a moment," the doctor replied. Presently he returned, but his head into Mr. Frash's den and said: "Let me congratulate you again. You have two fine boys across the hall."

Mr. Frash opened his mouth as if to respond, but before he could do so the doctor was gone again. Presently he was hounded in the new father's presence, saying: "By George, you have three fine boys across the hall!"

It was starting back when Mr. Frash hurried forward, pressed him by the shoulder and in excited tones cried:

"Say, doc, hold on. Three of a kind are good enough for me. I stand pat."—Chicago Herald.

The Earthquake.

To the average resident of the temperate zones an earthquake is a rare and terrible event, creating more consternation than any other visitation of nature. In the tropics, however, particularly in Central America, it is wonderful how easily the residents become accustomed to these shocks, which do not come, however, wholly without warning.

You are sitting on a piazza on a hot afternoon chatting with your friends when suddenly the sky seems to grow hazy and the crows stop cawing. There is a general rush, and though you may not know what is the matter, you can not help feeling uneasy.

The old natives say, "We're going to have a little shake," and then the house begins to rock, the tumbler fall off the table, you feel deathly sick at the stomach, and the thing is all over. The sky clears, the crows begin their noisy screams, and things are soon put right again.

He Was Cautious.

Wederly—The doctor says I must take more exercise. Do you think I ought to begin with dumbbells?

Mrs. Wederly—Suppose for a starter you come out with me this afternoon and wheel the baby carriage?

Wederly—1—er—really, Mary, I couldn't think of it. I don't want to overdo the thing the first day.—Chicago News

He Was So Horr.

"Well," said the doctor, peeping into the room where Wellington Frash, the great poker expert, was waiting for the returns. "I suppose you will regard this as a mere formality, but I must congratulate you nevertheless on the fact that you have a fine boy across the hall."

"H!" said Mr. Frash. "That's good! Come in and take something."

"Excuse me for a moment," the doctor replied. Presently he returned, but his head into Mr. Frash's den and said: "Let me congratulate you again. You have two fine boys across the hall."

Mr. Frash opened his mouth as if to respond, but before he could do so the doctor was gone again. Presently he was hounded in the new father's presence, saying: "By George, you have three fine boys across the hall!"

It was starting back when Mr. Frash hurried forward, pressed him by the shoulder and in excited tones cried:

"Say, doc, hold on. Three of a kind are good enough for me. I stand pat."—Chicago Herald.

The Earthquake.

To the average resident of the temperate zones an earthquake is a rare and terrible event, creating more consternation than any other visitation of nature. In the tropics, however, particularly in Central America, it is wonderful how easily the residents become accustomed to these shocks, which do not come, however, wholly without warning.

You are sitting on a piazza on a hot afternoon chatting with your friends when suddenly the sky seems to grow hazy and the crows stop cawing. There is a general rush, and though you may not know what is the matter, you can not help feeling uneasy.

The old natives say, "We're going to have a little shake," and then the house begins to rock, the tumbler fall off the table, you feel deathly sick at the stomach, and the thing is all over. The sky clears, the crows begin their noisy screams, and things are soon put right again.

He Was Cautious.

Wederly—The doctor says I must take more exercise. Do you think I ought to begin with dumbbells?

Mrs. Wederly—Suppose for a starter you come out with me this afternoon and wheel the baby carriage?

Wederly—1—er—really, Mary, I couldn't think of it. I don't want to overdo the thing the first day.—Chicago News

He Was So Horr.

"Well," said the doctor, peeping into the room where Wellington Frash, the great poker expert, was waiting for the returns. "I suppose you will regard this as a mere formality, but I must congratulate you nevertheless on the fact that you have a fine boy across the hall."

"H!" said Mr. Frash. "That's good! Come in and take something."

"Excuse me for a moment," the doctor replied. Presently he returned, but his head into Mr. Frash's den and said: "Let me congratulate you again. You have two fine boys across the hall."

Mr. Frash opened his mouth as if to respond, but before he could do so the doctor was gone again. Presently he was hounded in the new father's presence, saying: "By George, you have three fine boys across the hall!"

It was starting back when Mr. Frash hurried forward, pressed him by the shoulder and in excited tones cried:

"Say, doc, hold on. Three of a kind are good enough for me. I stand pat."—Chicago Herald.

The Earthquake.

To the average resident of the temperate zones an earthquake is a rare and terrible event, creating more consternation than any other visitation of nature. In the tropics, however, particularly in Central America, it is wonderful how easily the residents become accustomed to these shocks, which do not come, however, wholly without warning.

You are sitting on a piazza on a hot afternoon chatting with your friends when suddenly the sky seems to grow hazy and the crows stop cawing. There is a general rush, and though you may not know what is the matter, you can not help feeling uneasy.

The old natives say, "We're going to have a little shake," and then the house begins to rock, the tumbler fall off the table, you feel deathly sick at the stomach, and the thing is all over. The sky clears, the crows begin their noisy screams, and things are soon put right again.

He Was Cautious.

Wederly—The doctor says I must take more exercise. Do you think I ought to begin with dumbbells?

Mrs. Wederly—Suppose for a starter you come out with me this afternoon and wheel the baby carriage?

Wederly—1—er—really, Mary, I couldn't think of it. I don't want to overdo the thing the first day.—Chicago News

He Was So Horr.

"Well," said the doctor, peeping into the room where Wellington Frash, the great poker expert, was waiting for the returns. "I suppose you will regard this as a mere formality, but I must congratulate you nevertheless on the fact that you have a fine boy across the hall."

"H!" said Mr. Frash. "That's good! Come in and take something."

"Excuse me for a moment," the doctor replied. Presently he returned, but his head into Mr. Frash's den and said: "Let me congratulate you again. You have two fine boys across the hall."

Mr. Frash opened his mouth as if to respond, but before he could do so the doctor was gone again. Presently he was hounded in the new father's presence, saying: "By George, you have three fine boys across the hall!"

It was starting back when Mr. Frash hurried forward, pressed him by the shoulder and in excited tones cried:

"Say, doc, hold on. Three of a kind are good enough for me. I stand pat."—Chicago Herald.

The Earthquake.

To the average resident of the temperate zones an earthquake is a rare and terrible event, creating more consternation than any other visitation of nature. In the tropics, however, particularly in Central America, it is wonderful how easily the residents become accustomed to these shocks, which do not come, however, wholly without warning.

You are sitting on a piazza on a hot afternoon chatting with your friends when suddenly the sky seems to grow hazy and the crows stop cawing. There is a general rush, and though you may not know what is the matter, you can not help feeling uneasy.

The old natives say, "We're going to have a little shake," and then the house begins to rock, the tumbler fall off the table, you feel deathly sick at the stomach, and the thing is all over. The sky clears, the crows begin their noisy screams, and things are soon put right again.

He Was Cautious.

Wederly—The doctor says I must take more exercise. Do you think I ought to begin with dumbbells?

Mrs. Wederly—Suppose for a starter you come out with me this afternoon and wheel the baby carriage?

Wederly—1—er—really, Mary, I couldn't think of it. I don't want to overdo the thing the first day.—Chicago News

He Was So Horr.

"Well," said the doctor, peeping into the room where Wellington Frash, the great poker expert, was waiting for the returns. "I suppose you will regard this as a mere formality, but I must congratulate you nevertheless on the fact that you have a fine boy across the hall."

"H!" said Mr. Frash. "That's good! Come in and take something."

"Excuse me for a moment," the doctor replied. Presently he returned, but his head into Mr. Frash's den and said: "Let me congratulate you again. You have two fine boys across the hall."

Mr. Frash opened his mouth as if to respond, but before he could do so the doctor was gone again. Presently he was hounded in the new father's presence, saying: "By George, you have three fine boys across the hall!"

It was starting back when Mr. Frash hurried forward, pressed him by the shoulder and in excited tones cried:

"Say, doc, hold on. Three of a kind are good enough for me. I stand pat."—Chicago Herald.

The Earthquake.

To the average resident of the temperate zones an earthquake is a rare and terrible event, creating more consternation than any other visitation of nature. In the tropics, however, particularly in Central America, it is wonderful how easily the residents become accustomed to these shocks, which do not come, however, wholly without warning.

You are sitting on a piazza on a hot afternoon chatting with your friends when suddenly the sky seems to grow hazy and the crows stop cawing. There is a general rush, and though you may not know what is the matter, you can not help feeling uneasy.

The old natives say, "We're going to have a little shake," and then the house begins to rock, the tumbler fall off the table, you feel deathly sick at the stomach, and the thing is all over. The sky clears, the crows begin their noisy screams, and things are soon put right again.

He Was Cautious.

Wederly—The doctor says I must take more exercise. Do you think I ought to begin with dumbbells?

Mrs. Wederly—Suppose for a starter you come out with me this afternoon and wheel the baby carriage?

Wederly—1—er—really, Mary, I couldn't think of it. I don't want to overdo the thing the first day.—Chicago News

He Was So Horr.

"Well," said the doctor, peeping into the room where Wellington Frash, the great poker expert, was waiting for the returns. "I suppose you will regard this as a mere formality, but I must congratulate you nevertheless on the fact that you have a fine boy across the hall."

"H!" said Mr. Frash. "That's good! Come in and take something."

"Excuse me for a moment," the doctor replied. Presently he returned, but his head into Mr. Frash's den and said: "Let me congratulate you again. You have two fine boys across the hall."

Mr. Frash opened his mouth as if to respond, but before he could do so the doctor was gone again. Presently he was hounded in the new father's presence, saying: "By George, you have three fine boys across the hall!"

It was starting back when Mr. Frash hurried forward, pressed him by the shoulder and in excited