

LEAVES THE BLACK SEA

Another Russian Warship Goes Through the Bosphorus.

SEARCH OF SHIPS IN RED SEA

Russia Holds that She is Acting Well Within Her Rights—German Resentment Aroused by Seizure of Mail Sacks—Diplomatic Opinion as to Passage of Dardanelles by Volunteer Cruisers.

London, July 17.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Standard, in a dispatch dated July 17, says: "The Russian gunship Chernomoretz passed through the Bosphorus from the Black Sea this morning." The Chernomoretz is a gun vessel belonging to the Black Sea fleet, and carries two 8-inch guns and 6-inch gun, and seven quick-firing and machine guns. She is equipped with two torpedo tubes and is armed with 180. The Standard's Tokyo correspondent, cabling under date of July 17, says the Jiji Shimpo in an editorial, expresses the hope that Great Britain will not allow the Russian fleet to pass the Dardanelles. The Jiji Shimpo declares that Great Britain is bound under the terms of the Anglo-Russian alliance to prevent such assistance being given. Almost without exception the newspapers this morning in editorials or otherwise, comment upon the Russian volunteer fleet steamers passing the Dardanelles, and the government is urged to take action especially for the protection of British commerce in the Red Sea and neighboring waters.

The Daily Telegraph, concluding an outside view of the war with traces of government inspiration, says: "There is a limit to complaisance when neutral commerce under the British flag is molested in any way that has not been for a century and a half unobserved."

Claims Right of Search.

St. Petersburg, July 17.—The news that the Russian volunteer steamships Smolensk and St. Petersburg, now cruising in the Red Sea, are stopping ships of neutral nations and searching them for contraband of war is causing the liveliest interest in all circles. Russia has evidently won the question of her right to search for contraband of war, and neither fears nor anticipates international complications. Indeed some of the powers have been friendly to Russia in this subject. Nevertheless, foreign opinion is awaited eagerly and more or less criticism is expected.

One of the diplomatic corps are keenly anxious to ascertain the views their governments will take of the passage through the Dardanelles of these vessels of the volunteer fleet. The merchantmen and their subsequent conversion into ships of war. The general view in diplomatic circles even where sentiment is not prominent, is that Russia is in the right while the passage of the Dardanelles might be considered a piece of sharp practice on the part of Russia. It is an accepted fact and the Russian volunteer fleet is regarded as a violation of the treaty of Paris but will guard against its repetition. The diplomats think that some of the powers might insist that henceforth all volunteer vessels shall be considered as warships within the meaning of the treaty.

Coal as Contraband.

One of the most interesting questions in this connection, the diplomats believe, will arise out of Russia's declaration that coal is contraband of war. While the crews on board, the captured ships could be sent to Russian Baltic ports, but if short of coal they could not put in at the ports of the Black Sea. The question is a serious one, and it is not unlikely that this same question may embarrass Russia when the Baltic fleet sails for the far East.

In view of the protest made by Germany in the case of the stoppage of the steamer Benzardier (seized in Delagoa Bay December 29, 1899) during the South African war, as the result of which Great Britain had to pay damages, much curiosity exists as to what Germany will do in the case of the confiscation by the Smolensk of the mail sacks on board the North German Lloyd steamer Prinz Heinrich, especially as a large portion of the mail seized was undoubtedly of a commercial character.

Aroused by Mail Seizure.

Berlin, July 17.—Considerable excitement has been caused in this country by the news that the Russian volunteer fleet cruiser Smolensk has seized and confiscated a number of mail bags belonging to the North German Lloyd Company, in the Red Sea Friday afternoon. Public opinion condemns the action of the Russians as a direct breach of the express provision of international law by which regular mails are declared immune from confiscation. The so-called "volunteer" fleet, which occurred during the Boer war, when German East African liners suspected of carrying contraband were stopped and searched by British cruisers, is cited in support of this contention. The government is being urged to lodge with-out delay a protest with St. Petersburg against the action of the Smolensk.

OKU ARRAIGNS THE RUSSIANS

Charges Repeated Violation of Rules of Civilized Warfare.

White Flag Abused, Hospital Fired On, Wounded and Dead Mutilated, and Women Mistreated.

Special London Times Cablegram (Copyrighted) to The Washington Post.

Tokyo, July 15.—The war office has published a statement received from Gen. Oku's army, arraigning Russian conduct in the field on eleven counts, two for abuse of the white flag, one for persistent firing on the field hospital conspicuously flying the Red Cross flag, whereby the Japanese were compelled to remove the hospital amid great danger; two for firing on men of the hospital corps, though clearly distinguished by badges; three for stabbing, shooting, and slashing wounded; two for shockingly mutilating the dead, one for stealing cattle and horses and violating women; and one for mistreating prisoners. These charges, preferred with full details, relate to Gen. Oku's army only, and are independent of the experiences of Gen. Kuropki's army, which are not less shocking. It is understood the Japanese did not at first put such accusations on record, but have been compelled to do so on account of the Franco-Russian story of Japanese outrages at Wa-fang-tien, which is indignantly denied. The hypothesis that the mutilation of the dead was the work of Chinese is conclusively disproved by the fact that such atrocities were not committed by the Chinese. Moreover, all the evidence shows that the Chinese have treated the Japanese wounded and dead with the greatest kindness and respect.

KOREA REBUFS JAPAN.

Refuses Concession Asked, Giving It to Home Syndicate.

Special London Times Cablegram (Copyrighted) to The Washington Post.

Tokyo, July 17.—The home syndicate having applied for a large timber felling and reclaiming of land privileges in Korea, there is much agitation in Seoul, fomented by ignorant people, who imagine there is some design against the country's integrity behind the application. The household department, influenced by the claims for land, has been busy in granting the monopoly of such privileges to a native company, suddenly organized under Li Da Chai, former minister of foreign affairs. It grows daily more evident that Korea will be permanently helpless and undeveloped if left to her own resources.

FRANCE THREATENS CHINA.

Will Land Troops in Kwang-si if Disorders Are Not Put Down.

Tientsin, July 17.—Information has been received here that unless China suppresses the rebellion in the province of Kwang-si, the French government has threatened to land troops and put it down. The Chinese government is much perturbed in consequence.

Paris, July 17.—The foreign office as yet has no official details of the reported clash between French and Japanese soldiers at Shang-hai-kwan, resulting in the killing of two Frenchmen, but the officials do not regard the affair seriously. They say it is doubtful whether the disorderly soldiers, and was without international significance. It is expected that the officers will punish those concerned.

The French detachment at Shang-hai-kwan is the remains of the French force that, at the time of its occupation by the allies during the Boxer uprising.

TO ADMINISTER MANCHURIA.

Japanese Offer to Use Chinese Troops Now in Province.

Tien-tsun, July 17.—The Chinese minister at Tokyo has telegraphed the Wat Wou Pou (the Chinese minister of foreign affairs) that the Japanese government has presented a scheme for the administration of Manchuria, the principal clause of which is that the Japanese will govern the province with the number of Chinese troops now in the country.

A feeling prevails in Tien-tsun that the Japanese have suffered a terrible reverse at Port Arthur. If they had not, it is thought, a scheme for the administration would have contradicted the reported disaster days ago.
