

Daily News - 1/23/57
Ex-Legislator

W. T. ApMadoc

Dies at 83

William Tudor ApMadoc, 83, retired lawyer and former Illinois state legislator, died Tuesday in Evanston Rest Home.

Shortly before retiring in 1952, Mr. ApMadoc was honored by the Chicago Bar Association for his 56 years as an attorney.

* * *

HE SERVED three consecutive terms, beginning in 1907, in the Illinois House of Representatives as a Republican from the 5th district.

He lived at 2520 Sheridan rd., Evanston.

Born in Utica, N.Y., Mr. ApMadoc was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1896.

* * *

MR. APMADOC began as a clerk in the law firm of Peckham, Packard, ApMadoc & Walsh and later became a partner.

He was past master of the Landmark Masonic Lodge 422.

Surviving are the widow, Nelle; a son, William T. Jr.; a daughter, Mrs. Emmett Brown, and six grandchildren.

Services will be private.